

ENTRY INTO POSTGRADUATE SURGICAL TRAINING COURSE

21st -23rd NOVEMBER 2014

ADVANCED SURGICAL SKILLS CENTRE, UKM MEDICAL CENTRE

Organised by;

ASSC

ABOUT THE COURSE

This course is specially designed to prepare candidates who wish to take up a career in surgery in Malaysia. The program consists of lectures and interactive sessions delivered by experienced surgical lecturers from our local institutions. There will be presentations on basic surgical sciences & clinical surgery, guide on tackling the entrance examination and interactive feedback sessions. Our invited faculties include senior surgeons in the Malaysian surgical field who will share some tips on how to survive the training program.

The student will be guided on how to answer the pre-entrance test, shown proper interview techniques and given explanation on the selection criteria. There will also be a lecture from the Training Division, Ministry of Health regarding the administrative procedures and application process.

This program is ideal for candidates who wish to apply into one of the Master of Surgery (MS) program offered by our local universities. There will be a special lecture on alternative options such as MRCS and FRCS pathways.

Candidates are advised to register early to avoid disappointment as the course had proven to be very popular last year.
